I Aim of the congress

The Asian Pig Veterinary Society (APVS) was established in 2002. Diseases that threaten livestock management are spreading beyond national borders. The aims are sharing information on common pig production and diseases in Asia and overcoming these challenges together in order to control infectious diseases in the region. Currently consisting of 6 countries and 1 region (China, Korea, Thailand, Philippines, Viet Nam, Taiwan, and Japan), the APVS is governed by a board of directors consisting of swine veterinary associations and researchers from each country.

The 4th APVS was held in Japan in 2009 at the International Congress Center in Tsukuba City, Ibaraki Prefecture, for three days from October 26 to 28, 2009.

A total of 1,214 participants participated from 23 countries and regions, including China, South Korea, Thailand, the Philippines, Vietnam, Taiwan, and Japan, as well as Germany, Denmark, France, the United States, Australia, Singapore, and Malaysia. There were 425 participants from overseas and about 200 from Japan.

The APVS is held on a rotating basis by the member countries and regions, and the host country is decided by the Board of Directors. It has been decided that the country in charge will be responsible for holding the APVS with the cooperation of its own stakeholders in all aspects such as finances and operation. Past host countries and regions are as follows;

1 st : 2003 Korea (Seoul)	6 th : 2013 Vietnam (Ho Chi Minh City)
2 nd : 2005 Philippines (Manila)	7 th : 2015 Philippines (Manila)
3 rd : 2007 China (Wuhan)	8 th : 2017 China (Wuhan)
4 th : 2009 Japan (Tsukuba)	9 th : 2019 Korea (Seoul)
5 th : 2011 Thailand (Pattaya)	10 th : 2023 Taiwan (Taipei)

*The 2021 event will be postponed due to the spread of COVID-19 infection.

*It was decided to hold the 10th Congress in Taiwan. Taiwan is a new member region and the International Society for Emerging and Re-emerging Porcine Diseases (ISERPD 2015) was held in Japan in 2015.

It was confirmed that the 11th APVS meeting will be held in Japan at the APVS Board of Directors meeting in November 2022. In response to this, we have established organizing and executive committee in Japan and are preparing to hold APS2025. In addition to following the purpose of APVS so far Japan we would like to take this opportunity to contribute to the development of the swine industry, veterinary medicine, and the expansion of swine disease research.

We would appreciate your understanding of the purpose of holding this congress and your guidance and support for its success.

Sincerely,

The 11th Asian Pig Veterinary Society Congress, Organizing Committee

Hiroaki Ogura, President

Satoshi Otake, Chair of Executive Committee
